RONALD M. SHAPIRO RECEIVES THE DAILY RECORD'S 2010 LEADERSHIP IN LAW AWARD

Baltimore, MD, November 19, 2010 — Ronald M. Shapiro is a recipient of The Daily Record's 2010 Leadership in Law Awards.

The Daily Record began the Leadership in Law Awards in 2000 as a way to recognize the outstanding work being done by members of the legal community throughout Maryland.

“To be considered for The Daily Record's Leadership in Law Awards, individuals must have devoted time and energy to bettering the legal profession, as well as the community in which they live and work. They also must have mentored future professional and community leaders,” says Christopher Eddings, Publisher of The Daily Record. “We applaud Ron Shapiro for embodying all of these characteristics.”

This year, The Daily Record received more than 100 nominations, which are solicited from The Daily Record's readers, area law firms, Bar Associations, chambers of commerce, and the business and legal communities at large. Nominees are asked to complete an application which explains what they have accomplished in their careers to distinguish them as outstanding leaders in the law.

A distinguished panel of judges reviewed the applications and selected 24 winners for 2010. The winners were honored on Friday, November 19 at a reception and luncheon, held at The Hilton Baltimore BWI Airport. Winners also were profiled in a special magazine that was included in the November 22 issue of The Daily Record.

Sponsors of The Daily Record's 2010 Leadership in Law Awards include Wachovia, A Wells Fargo Company, Ellin & Tucker, Epsilon Registration, Saul Ewing, Special Counsel and VPC, Inc.
